Do you guys know about all of the different types of pronouns? There are so many different types of pronouns. I should definitely be embarrassed, right? I dare you to get through the Misused Words and Expressions section without your stomach dropping in panic at least once. If you think you might have confused those words in your MFA application packet, just stare at them for a long time. The Commonly Misspelled Words section made me want to have all of my friends over for an impromptu spelling contest. This is maybe related to why I have so few friends. In order to really understand grammar for it to really stick you have to learn the names of things. This seems like a metaphor for something. Mindy Kaling seems to think it just makes me rude: That is not a real thing. I once knew a girl who would diagram sentences to ward off panic attacks. Should I tell you about all the different types of sentence modifiers? Which reminds me of one of my best English teachers in high school. In order to teach us grammar and promote sentence variety, she used to make a checklist of different grammar tools we had to use in our essays. Insert Matthew McConaughey joke. If I have children, they will never spell anything incorrectly, they will instead corrupt the spelling of words. Because my children will be badass. As a result, many of them, seemingly to protect themselves and their organizations, tend to overuse hedge words that is, words that allow the speaker or writer to hedge on the meaning of his or her statement. Examples of hedge words: Hedge words are also surprisingly useful in arguments with your significant other.
