Hotels, Resorts and Spas November, 20 Zagat. Hotels, Resorts and Spas. The new guide, based on the ratings and reviews of nearly 20, frequent travelers, makes it easy to find the best lodging choices nationwide: The edition brought together 19, frequent travelers, including travel industry professionals, through the cooperation of the American Society of Travel Agents. Overall, the Survey on which the guide is based, assessed 1, hotels and resorts, spas and 73 hotel chains. The just published guide features the highest-rated places. A Relative Value - U. In a parallel survey of international hotels and resorts to be released in early , Zagat found that hotel rates in Asia, the Caribbean and Europe exceeded those in the U. Indeed, Four Seasons hotels, led by the I. Pei designed Four Seasons New York, won seven of the eleven top hotel rankings. The only chain to come close was the Ritz Carlton. See pages of the new guide for Top Places in each category. Sunbelt Rules - Overall, U. Yet not all markets are created equal: Twelve of the Top 25 resorts are in the 50th State, including three with overall scores of Besides the Four Seasons Hualalai with its oversized rooms, private beach and open-air spa, the other rated resorts were the Lodge at Koele on Lanai and the Four Seasons Maui. Aside from Hawaii, other leading destinations were Arizona, California and Florida, more proof of Sunbelt supremacy. Eleven resorts took an impressive 28 score, starting with the Ritz-Carlton Naples. Spa-Tastic - Fifty-nine stand-alone spas are featured in the new Survey, offering all manner of treatment and coddling. Only one earned an overall rating of Also taking 28s were the Greenhouse in Arlington, TX like a sorority for well-pampered women of a certain age and Canyon Ranch in Tucson expensive perhaps, but in the long run, cheaper and better than a therapist. The Best Reads, Offline and On - For the first time, Zagat asked surveyors to choose the best travel magazines and web sites. Travelocity, owned by Sabre Connected, was named No. Rise of the Independents - While the survey shows that large operators such as Marriott, Hilton and Sheraton have aggressively upgraded their business-class offerings, the U. Many of the latter come with quirky character and designer touches reflecting a travel market that has grown noticeably younger and more sophisticated in recent years. Do Not Disturb - Download in Progress - That more travelers are taking room service these days may be a sign of business, not pleasure, as hotels increasingly appoint their rooms with office-like features such as multiple phone lines, fax machines, meeting alcoves, workstation-sized desks, and especially high-speed Internet access. Ante up the Amenities - Gone are the days when a terrycloth robe and a jacuzzi were the ultimate in guest pampering. Worth Dining In - Food service may be the most improved area of the lodging industry in recent years, as many hotels have invested heavily in branding stand-alone dining rooms with major league chefs. Best by Region - The Survey breaks out top-rated properties across 13 major regions, from Mid-Atlantic States to individual states with heavy resort traffic such as Florida, California, Hawaii and Texas. Regional coverage includes the U. Caribbean, led by two 27 rated winners: John in the Virgin Islands well-appointed cottages set among seven pristine, never-crowded beaches. Name Your Treatment - Not all spa-seekers are going for a holistic experience, which is why Zagat offers 14 separate indexes helping travelers decide which aspects of mind, body, soul and appetite they choose to work on. Relax Here Now -- As the average U. It is no coincidence that the Top Hotel Spa in the U. There are also recommendations for those in search of Remote - from secluded Canoe Bay in Chetek, Wisconsin to the Mt. McKinley Lodge in Denali, Alaska. Rent-A-Favorites - As it has in every edition of the Travel Survey, Hertz drove away as the favorite rental car agency, trouncing perennial No. As online reservations systems evolve, travel agents have their work cut out in maintaining market share.
